Thus grew the tale of Wonderland:
Thus slowly one by one,
Its quaint events were hammered out—
And now our tale is done.

DEDICATION

MISS LINNEA ANDREE

Although you have never been a heroine of a literary classic, or the inspiration for a great masterpiece, or fallen down a rabbit hole one summer day, you have all the youth, vitality, and energy of Lewis Carroll's famous Alice. Years ago that well-known mathematics instructor wrote two lines which could apply to you, one of our most beloved teachers:

"The Good, the True, the Beautiful,—
Those are the things that pay!"

And these are the qualities, Miss Andree, that make us respect and love you.

We, the Class of 1955, in gratitude for the contributions you have made to our four years at Belleville High, dedicate our Monad to you, Miss Linnea Andree.

It is well known that Texas claims almost everything that is worthwhile, so it is not unnatural to learn that our teacher was born in San Antonio. After graduating from Palmyra High, Wilson College, and the Philadelphia Trade School, she obtained her Master's Degree at New York University.

She is living with her mother. They both enjoy traveling and taking care of their pets: Timmy, a canary, and Bobby, a parakeet. Miss Andree spends her spare time participating in her church and district Wilson College Alumnae Association of which she is a past president.

Because of your radiating personality and your untiring help to us as Junior Red Cross advisor and in so many other ways in and out of school, we wish to show our appreciation by dedicating our Monad of 1955 to you.

Queen of Hearts

Here we see Miss Andree in one of her typing classes, in Room 311.

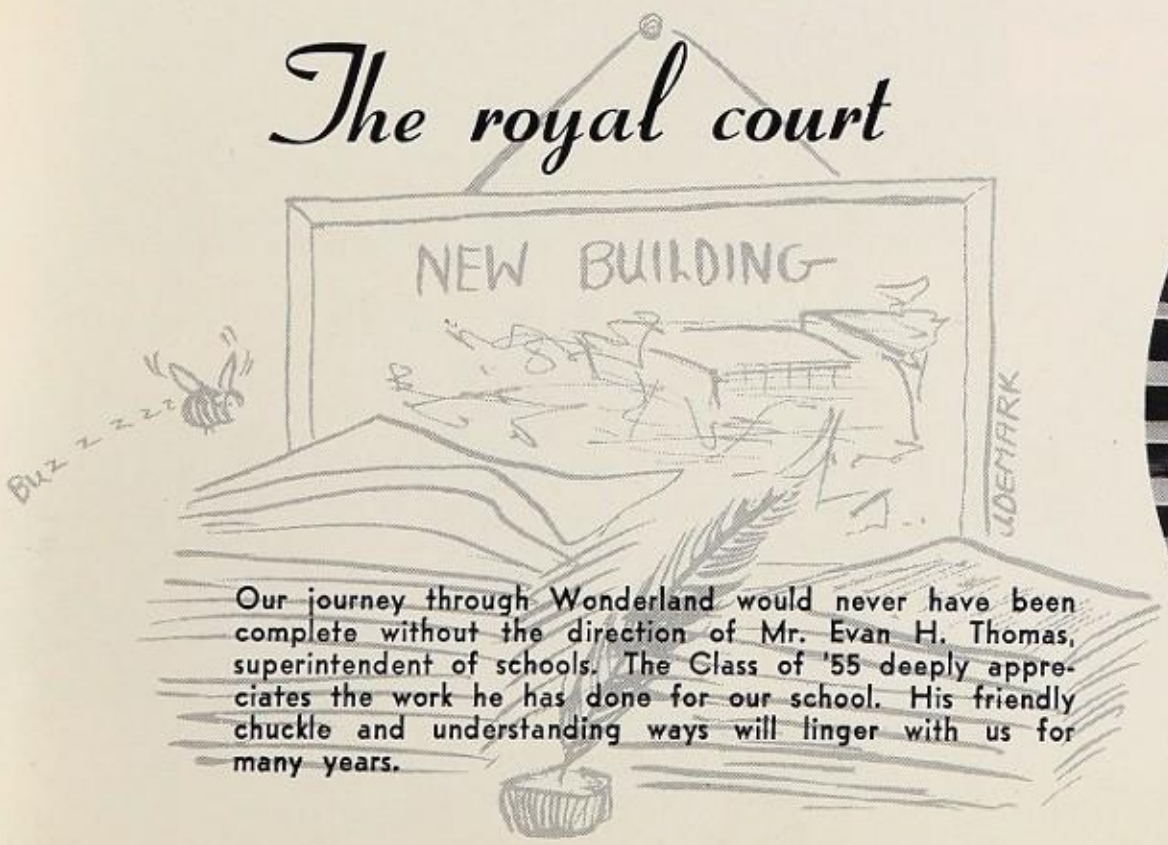
The royal court



Our journey through Wonderland would never have been complete without the direction of Mr. Evan H. Thomas, superintendent of schools. The Class of '55 deeply appreciates the work he has done for our school. His friendly chuckle and understanding ways will linger with us for many years.

Their Majesties

DR. FRANK M. DURKEE
General Supervisor

Dr. Durkee, like the March Hare, seems to be everywhere at one time. Often we have met our general supervisor in the halls and classrooms. He may also be found in any of the nine grammar schools or at workshop gatherings. Dr. Durkee has spent many hours bringing modern educational methods to Belleville High School.

MR. HUGH D. KITTLE
Principal

Our Wonderland could not have been quite as successful without our principal, Mr. Kittle.

He has patiently guided us through our many problems. That extra, special grin of his has encouraged us in our many activities, and his leadership and patience have made our journey easier. We may not know about the big fish he caught, or the dog called Sammy, or those prize rose bushes, but we do know how enthusiastically he can back Belleville High at our games and in any condemnation of our school.

Before we leave, we, the Class of 1955, would like to say an extra special "thank you" to Mr. Kittle, who has made our high school years truly eventful.

MR. CARL HENSINGER
Vice-Principal

We have all in one way or another come in contact with Mr. Hensinger. Those of us who have been lucky enough to meet and know him in an English class have gained valuable knowledge; and those of us who have met him in Room 4—well, need we say more? Yet there are few of us who realize the long hours he spends in improving our English curriculum so that even our neighboring schools are beginning to recognize his ability as an organizer and department head.

His pleasant personality and smile have followed us down the devious paths of our Wonderland and helped us along our way. We have all appreciated his help and guidance in some way or another.

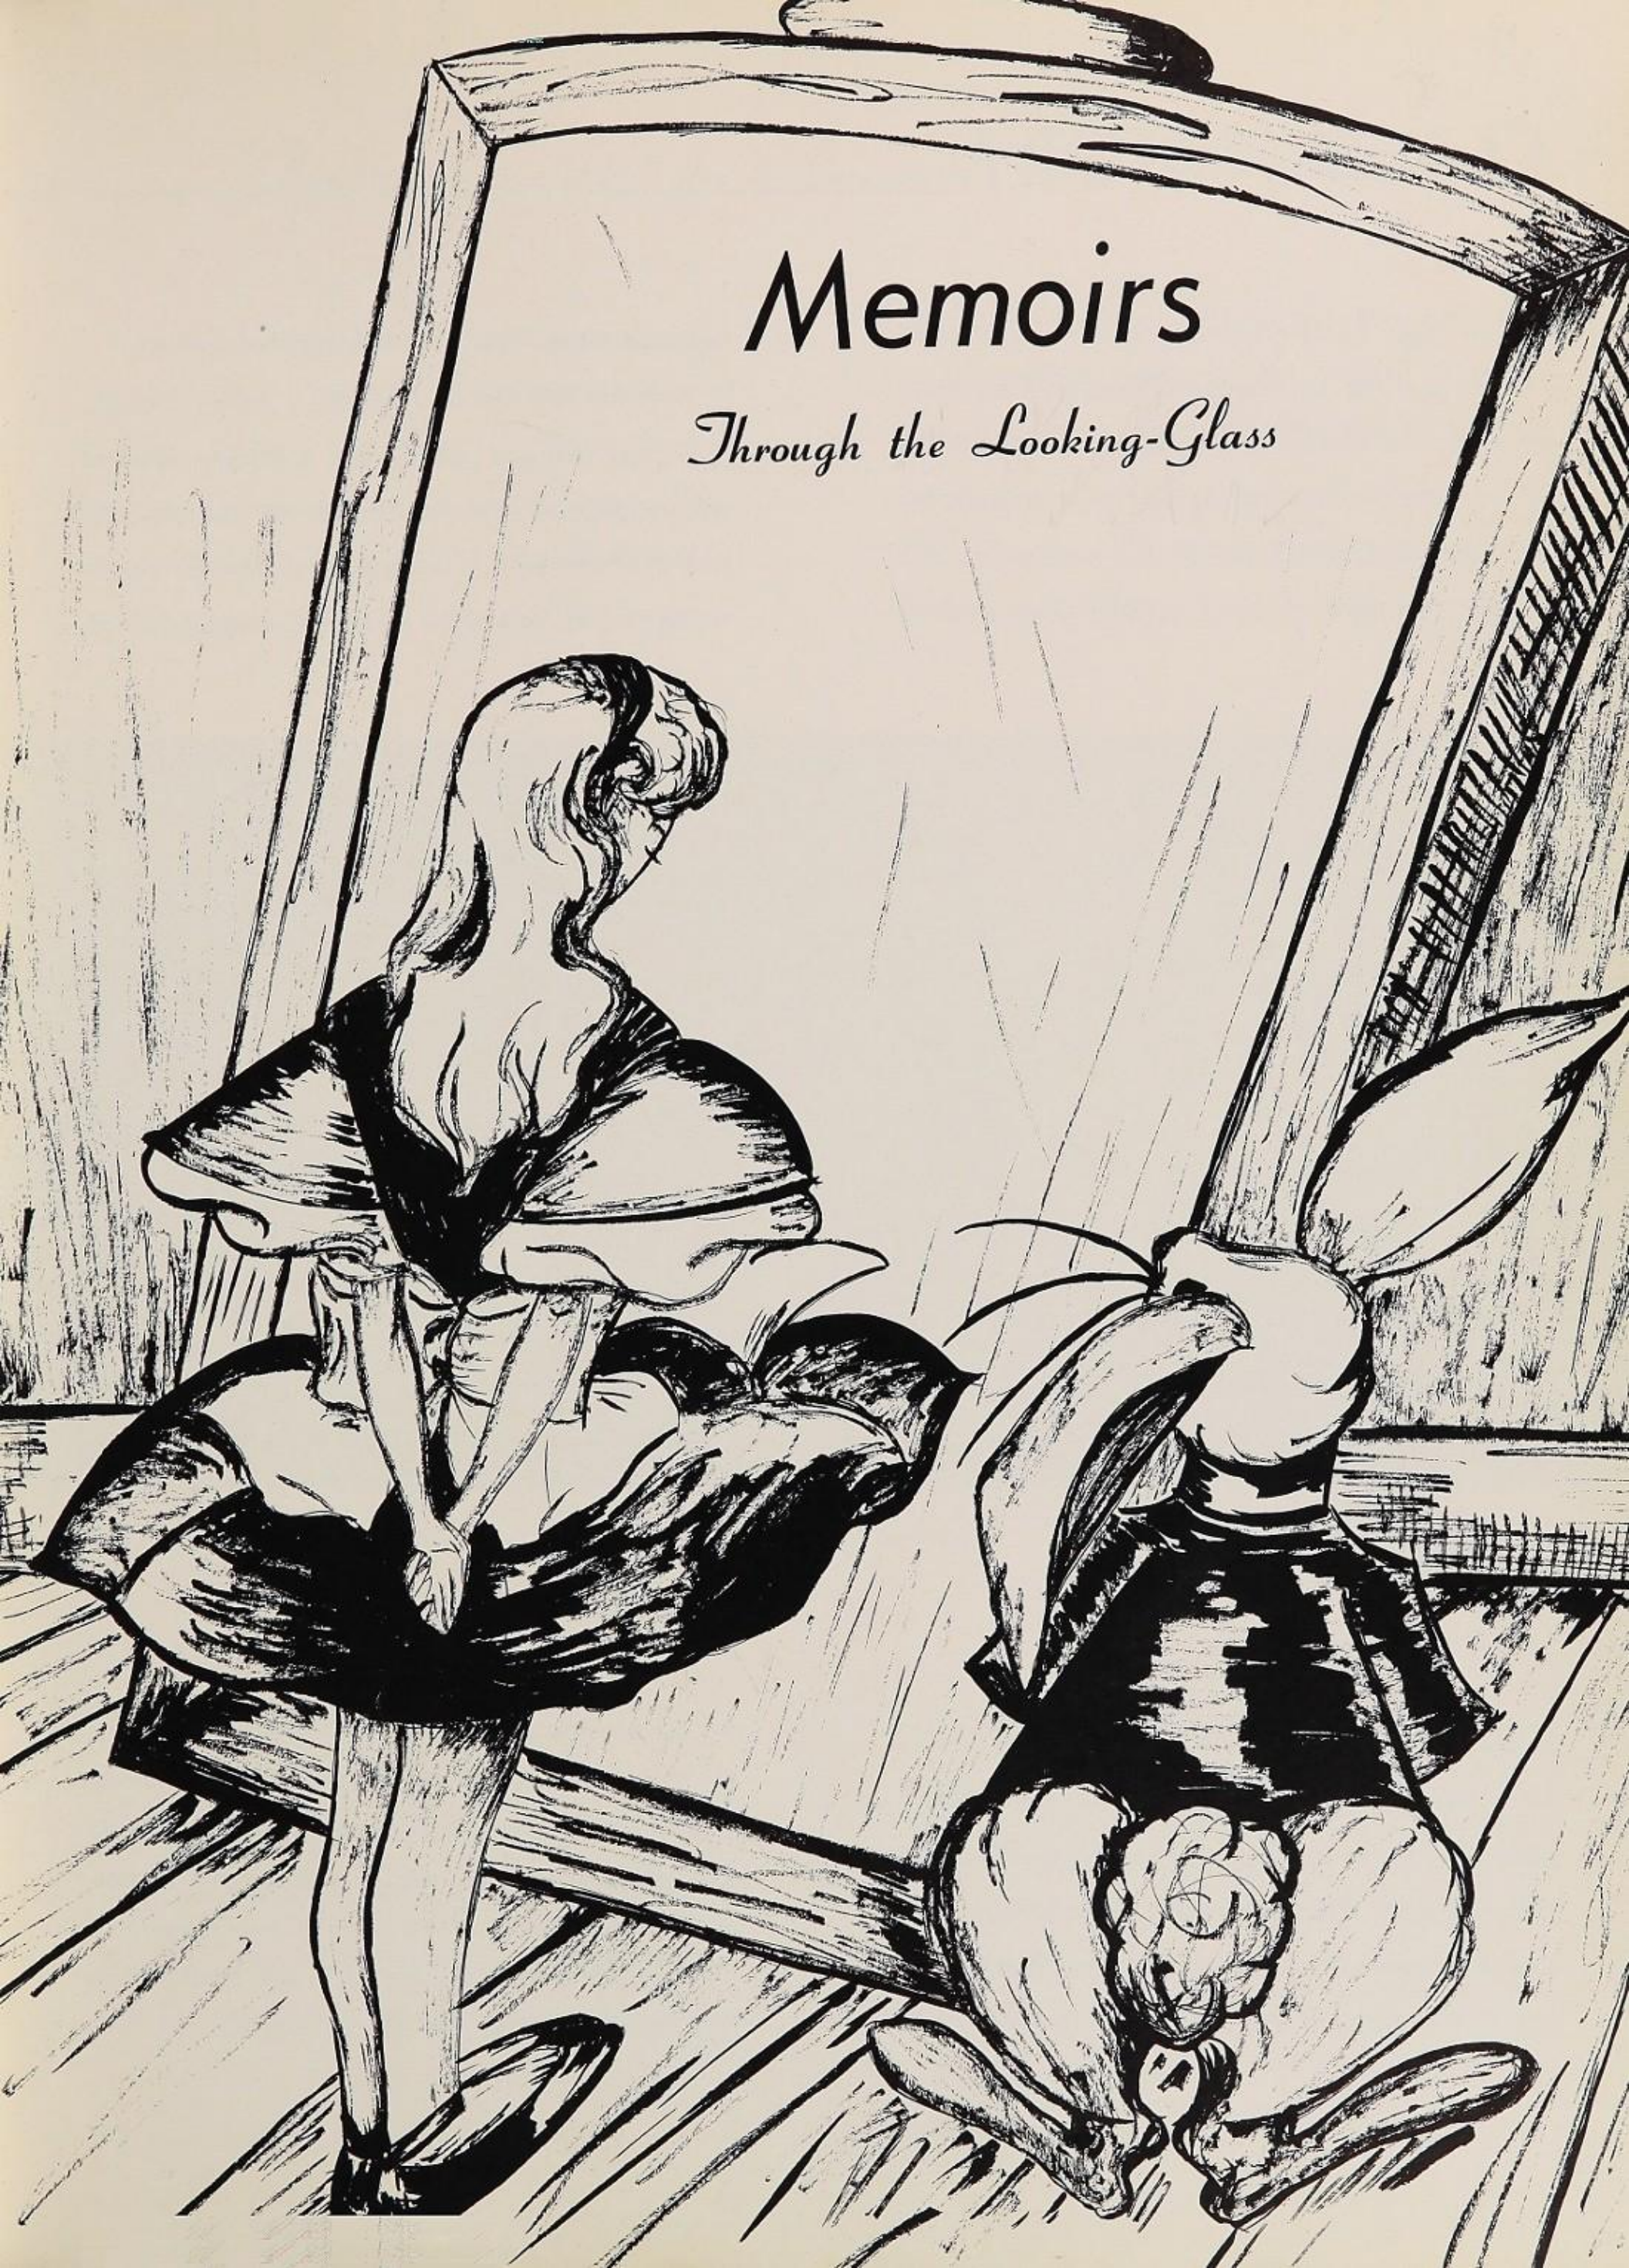
Through the Looking-Glass



CLASS HISTORY

One bright September morning in 1951, a crowd of wide-eyed freshmen stepped through the looking glass into the Wonderland of Belleville High School. Not having Lewis Carroll to direct our adventures, we elected class officers in the persons of Joe Dente, president; Frank Csaszar, vice-president; Howie Irving, secretary; and Ruth Cassidy, treasurer. Just as in Alice's Wonderland, events happened quickly and seemingly all at once. We were rich freshmen after the magazine campaign had ended. amazed freshmen after Twirp Week, and just a little annoyed at the "slithy" snowstorm that happened the night of our Christmas Dance.

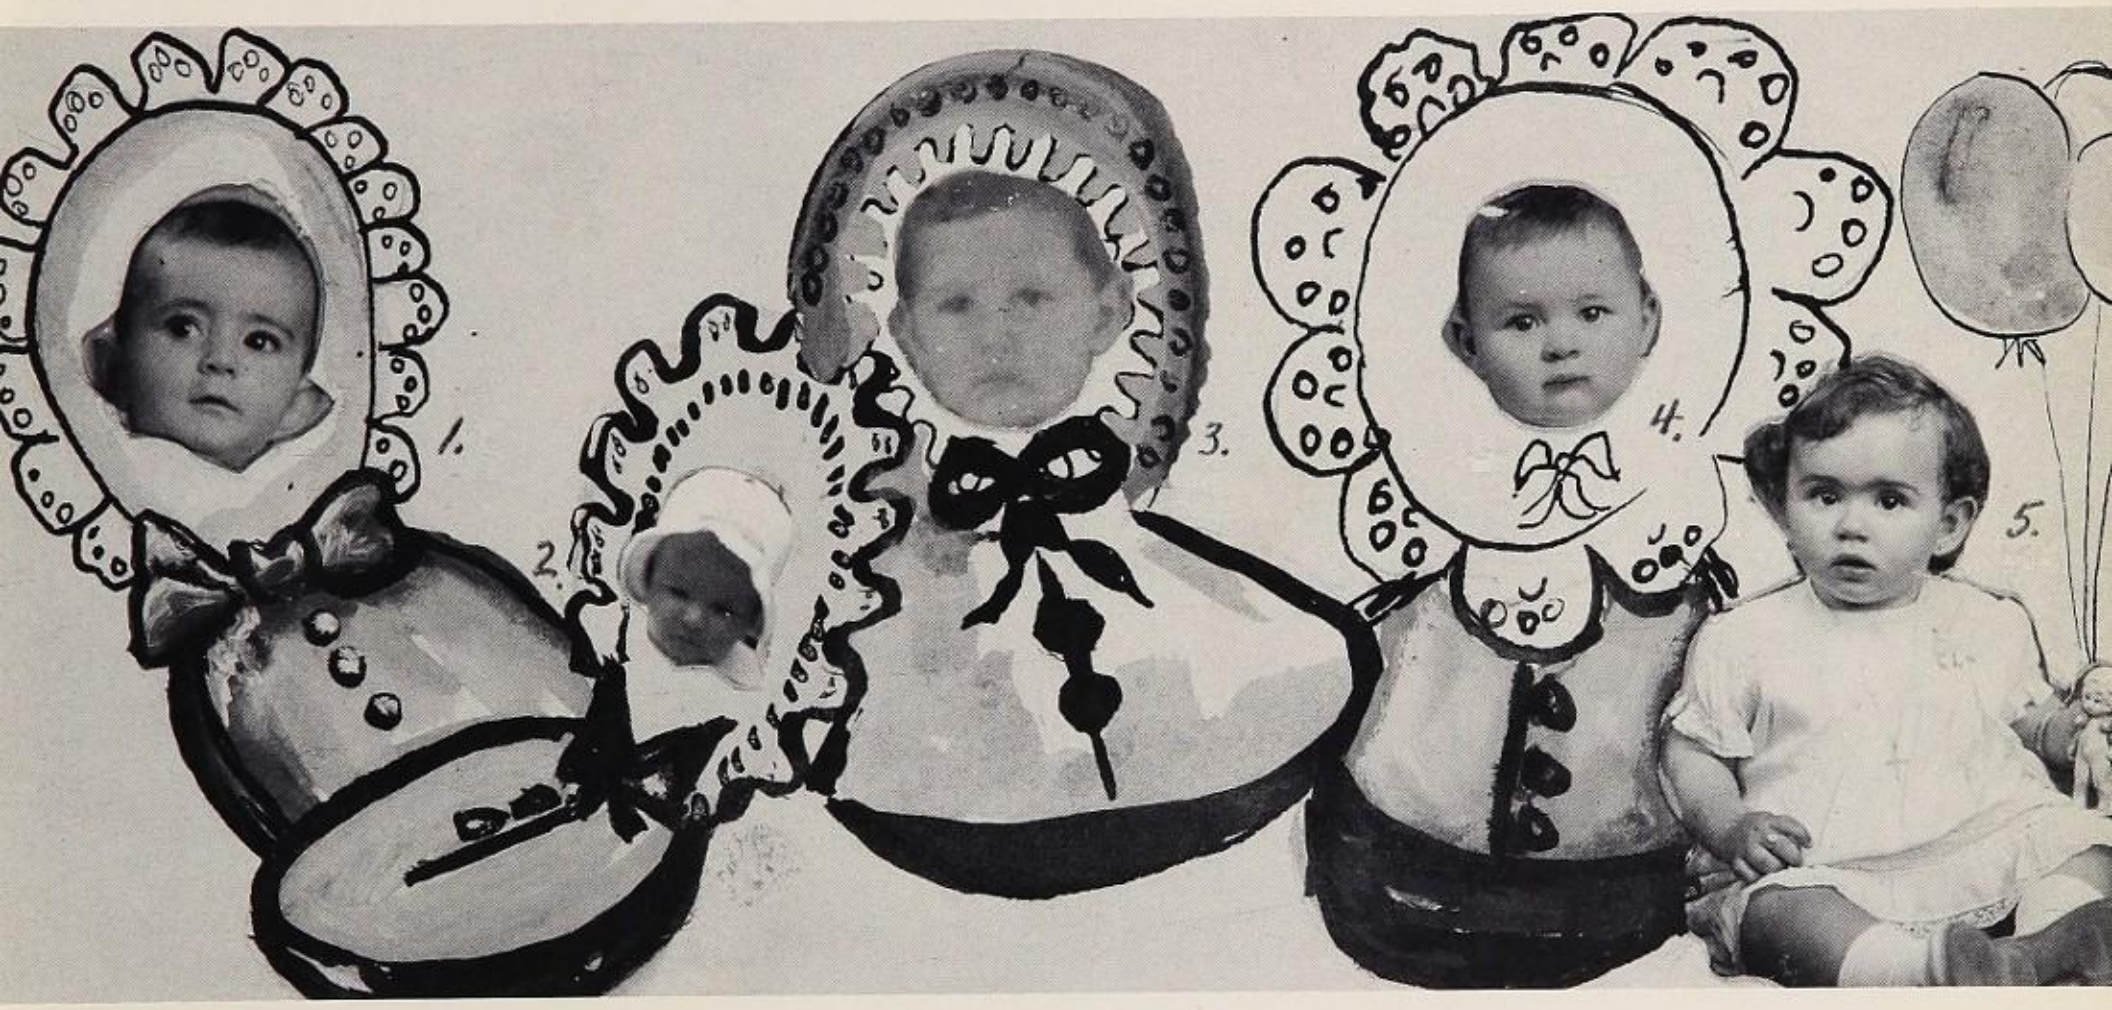
Led by Joe Dente, president; Sarah Daniels, vice-president; and John Mineo, secretary-treasurer we stepped into the next square on the checkerboard of life at B.H.S. Even with Mr. Grossman trying to help us win the magazine campaign prize, we needed the Sophomore Hop to provide us with the funds to continue our adventures. Mr. Grossman and Mr. Zuckerman were like Tweedledee and Tweedledum the way they battled for the possession of The Panda. As the "upper-lower classmen," we were noticed by representatives in sports, clubs and other activities around the school.

For key to pictures, see Page 74

"The time has come," the walrus said, "To talk of many things."

Upperclassmen at last, we had members of our class in leading places: Bev Campbell was Student Council secretary, Joe Dente was the vice-president, and Nicholas La Para was assistant editor of the Spotlight. This was the year of mid-exams and finals, and we had to study hard to pass problems that were harder than 365 minus 1 equals 364. Our "brillig" Junior Prom was handled capably by the Junior Senate, and our class officers were President Tanya Greulich, Vice-president Vin Dente, Secretary Martha Worthington, and Treasurer Ed Kosinski. They were in charge of the new way of handling the renting of the Meadowbrook and the hiring of entertainment and a band. They also took care of our Winter Wonderland Dance.

In September, 1954, we sailed at last on the final voyage on the Wonderland Seas. We had "to run very fast to stay where we were" for activities came thick and fast. In September Joe Dente and Arlene Generazio took their places in Student Council as president and treasurer respectively. Class elections were held for the last time with the results that Tanya Greulich was president; Tom Dolan, vice-president; and Ed Kosinski, secretary-treasurer.



For key to pictures, see Page 74

For the first time during the magazine campaign the senior class made an excellent showing being spurred on by the active 308 homeroom. However, we had a few red-faced seniors who missed out on the daily ten-dollar drawing.

During the football season Joe Mignon and Jack McCabe captained the football team, Tanya led the cheerleaders, Bev Campbell was a drum majorette, and Martha Worthington and Joanne Haster as captains put the twirlers through their fascinating routines while the senior members of the Band played lustily.

In January the Evaluation Committee fell down the rabbit hole and passed judgment on our school. The seniors disregarded tradition and presented a very successful Valentine Ball as a college style dance, receiving line and all. Around this time our fine basketball team was chasing the Essex County Tournament trophy. Although unseeded, we ended up as a "Cinderella team" playing in the semi-finals at Seton Hall.

A new girl commanded attention when Dear Ruth was presented. Members of the cast were Susan Walsh, Leona Salandra, Mary Frederick, Mary Geluso, Carol Travers, Nick La Para, Robert Drake, Mark Ricca, Richard Macaluso, and John Mineo.

April rolled around with showers and all. Our Junior Prom was held at the Military Park Hotel in Newark. May brought the tapping ceremony followed by congratulations and tears. Finally June arrived. All too soon those last few weeks flew by with the Rye Beach Trip, the Senior Dinner Dance, and Commencement.

Now, as we pursue the white rabbit through life, we shall have to wait to see what new Wonderlands lie ahead.

CLASS WILL

One spring day
Near a rabbit's hole

Dear Class of 1955:

I have been told by the Red Queen, who is a very important person, that the only proper way to remember a thing is to make a memorandum of it. This is my memorandum of the friends I have made at Belleville High:

The boys and girls of our school are very friendly. For example, when I came to B.H.S., the very first thing I did was to get lost up on the third floor. All of a sudden I found myself floating right smack in the middle of Bob Drake's pool of Johnny Ray's tears! I would have drowned if Steve Cohen had not come along in his banana wagon and stopped to fish me out. Once I was back on dry corridor again, I found myself staring at a huge sign swinging from the door of the chem lab which warned: "Beware of the Momeraths."

"Momeraths?"

"Yes, momeraths!" yelled Frank Durkee as he zoomed 'round the corner in his Renault. "Look out—here they come!"

As I turned 'round, a horde of screaming teenagers rushed down the hall toward me with Nick La Para in the lead. "Run for the roundhouse, Alice! They can't corner you there!"

So I ran with them as fast as I could, which was not very fast because I kept stumbling over the crinolines of Joan Godleski and Judy Abromson. We took refuge in the music room and, after barricading the door, tried to figure out some way of escaping from the clutches of the cunning attackers.

"These Momeraths," explained Arlene Generazio, "are a band of savage drinking fountains who have been terrorizing our school for years."

Three minutes of thoughtful silence was declared, and at the end of that time Barbara McWalters had an idea. "I've heard that music soothes the savage beasts—and we have some terrific music makers in this school!"

For key to pictures, see Page 74

"The organ makes the most noise — but it's flipped a tube," moaned Kathy Botsford, who had too vivid memories of the evaluation assembly program.

After Cy Amato's offer to sing had been declined, we decided that some red hot drum beats might do the trick, and Ralph Yannecce got to work. Goodness those hep-cats! Johnny Mineo and Connie Francanero mamboed up the walls and across the ceiling. I was just about to follow them when our lookout, Bev Campbell, blew her whistle for silence; and being such old-fashioned fellows, they just couldn't stand the beat!

"Three cheers for Yannecce!" yelled Tanya, Leona, Gail, Dolores, Barbara, Sarah, Sally, and Pat, cartwheeling out the door.

The king took an enormous memorandum-book . . . and began writing.

The bell for first period rang and I was on my way again—this time to Miss Andree's typing class.

I stopped for a while to watch Jean Demark painting the wallflowers blue and gold. This delay was sure to make me late, so I asked Jack Connolly for the shortest way to Room 311. "By my trusty slide rule left to me by Mr. Soldavini, I calculate the distance to be fifteen feet, three inches, and nine-tenths centimeters straight up," he said, handing me a diagram of the way all neatly folded up into the shape of an Oscar.

I wasn't late. Learning to type was a lot of fun. "Just be careful not to make any green I's," warned Jean Corbett. "Nor lose any rubber bands," added Susan Walsh. These remarks puzzled me for a while until something much more important happened. I was introduced to B.H.S.'s own King and Queen of Hearts, Mike Capozzi and Midge Sloan. After their majesties had wished me luck, my days at Belleville High became a long series of good times.

In fact I've enjoyed myself so much that I'm not sure I want to leave. When I told my problems to the Red Queen, she had a solution as usual: "Leave a souvenir! As the French say, 'Ich liebe Dich,' and in years to come you will discover the truth of that statement, my child."

I wasn't sure what sort of a souvenir to leave, so I asked some of the fellows and girls for advice. Tom Dolan told me he's leaving his copy of How to Win Friends and Influence People, and Barbara Newschwander is leaving her choice seat in Miss Maffeo's history class. Mary Frederick is giving her honored post in the Skillet Club to some "Madchen." Richie Veith is leaving a whole string of worn-out basketballs just as Jerry Lilore leaves second base. Grace Orth is glad to get rid of her talent show jitters, but Dick Vazzano is keeping that ready grin of his. Connie Costanza considerately leaves a miniature desk; but Vin Dente is taking everything, including his brother, Joe.

Oh, and there were so many more suggestions: Ron Kabot's bassoon, Esther's sparkling ring, Howie Irving's white bucks, Joanne Haster's and Martha Worthington's captains' uniforms, Mike Del-Bon's football, Lois Woodman's headaches, Rosie Schreiber's basketball and smile, Mark Ricca's STAR role in the senior play, Joe Mignon's track shoes . . .

But I didn't have any of those souvenirs to leave so I've decided to give you this memorandum so that you may remember your friends from Belleville High, too.

Love,
ALICE

A long tale . . . . . SENIOR PLAY

Hats off to the entire Senior Play cast. Here are Mark Ricco, Nick La Para, Susan Walsh, Robert Drake, John Mineo, Mary Fredericks, Mary Geluso, Leona Salandra, Carol Travers, and Richard Macaluso.

Alice may have thought she had trouble in Wonderland, but it was nothing compared to the painstaking job Mr. Kupferer had in picking his cast for Dear Ruth, especially when there was such a large turnout and such a small cast to choose. He was very much surprised to see the senior class so talented; therefore, the job was quite tedious and difficult. What a cast! Crazy? Yes. Mixed up? Indeed! Talented? Of course! We were all comedians who had Mr. Kupferer pulling his hair at every rehearsal. Leona Salandra, Richie Macaluso, Carol Travers, Nick La Para, John Mineo, Bob Drake, Mary Geluso, Mary Frederick, Susan Walsh, Mark Ricca, and student directors Ann Vaughn and Jane Encke made every rehearsal seem more like a comedy hour. How can we ever forget those long hours every day after school and those fabulous Saturday ones when we had lunch-breaks at the Sugar Bowl. We can still hear Mr. K's coaching from below the apron with, "More expression!" or "Keep in character." Remember those Saturdays when Mr. Kupferer's twin brother Bruce refused to join the role of co-director, or the two-hour late arrivals of John Mineo a trifle sleepy-eyed, or Susan Walsh with her giggles throwing everyone off character, or those sentimental kissing scenes?

Yes, Dear Ruth was quite a play; the cast was quite a cast; but most of all, there was our director, whose patience and aid made him seem more like a brother and classmate rather than a teacher.

We wish to thank any student and faculty member who participated in any way in making our production a success.

Credit should go to our directing department. Without assistant directors, Jane Encke and Ann Vaughn; and director, Bert Kupferer, DEAR RUTH could never have been such a success.

"Harold! Harold Klobbermeyer! Oh, no, not another one!" It seems Miriam has written to more than one serviceman.

". . . there are two hundred boxes!" Bill, not knowing the truth about the letters, continues to send Ruth gifts—every hour on the hour.

"What was in those letters? You don't mind telling me." Ruth has just discovered that sister Miriam has written sixty love letters to a lonely air force man, signing Ruth's name.

"I now pronounce you man and wife." Ruth and Bill leave for Florida after one of the fastest marriages on record.

" . . . on the other hand, Bill may have arranged it all by himself." Albert, Ruth's real fiancé, is fearful that Bill may have gone ahead and planned a surprise wedding.

Pool of tears . . .

THE MONAD STAFF

Editor-in-chief Lois Woodman looks on while advisors Miss Thelma Weidman and Mrs. Faith Willis go over pictures and material for the MONAD.

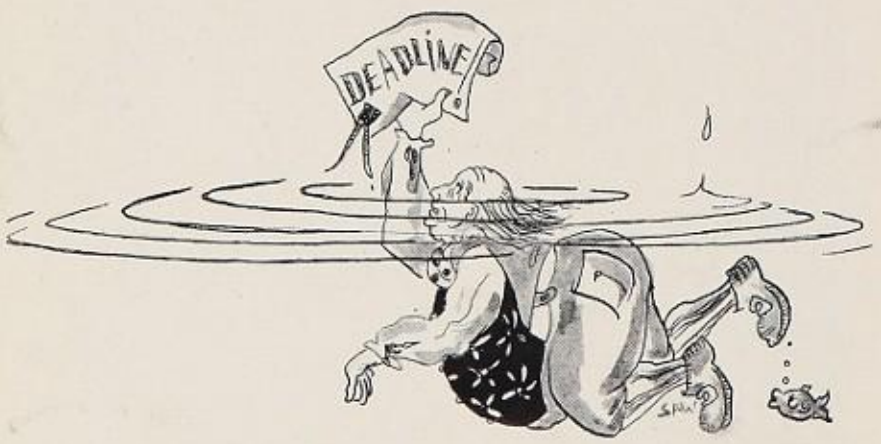
Lewis Carroll might have originated a "pool of tears," but nobody but the Monad Staff knows what it is like to swim out of one before the deadline. We started off with a bang and then gradually gave way to such activities as basketball tournaments and the Senior Play so that the advisor, Miss Weidman, was often desperate about getting her material in on time.

We hope you like our theme. For weeks we discussed several but none of them seemed to lend itself to a flexible program. Finally we arrived at Alice and her Wonderland. It sounded as if it would work; but when we finally got down to the real thing, we found that it was more difficult than we had anticipated. We have tried to carry it throughout the book as much as possible.

We wish to thank Mr. Rae, our printer; Miss Green of Apedia Studios for her photography; and Mr. Kondreck of Belleville, who has been kind enough to let us use some of the photographs he took for the Spotlight. Some of the candids for the basketball pages came from the Newark Evening News. Without their help, our yearbook would not be such a success.

Our Photography Editor Barbara McWalters and Miss Green from Apeda did a splendid job with our MONAD pictures. They were always on the go catching many smiling faces.

Our Art Staff under Mr. Diehl's direction did a superb job. They were deeply engrossed in a magic world of rabbits, bunnies, Alice and the Wonderland.



Our Business Staff was under Mr. Schultz's direction. Bernard Thaler captained the group, who worked industriously soliciting from our neighborhood businesses.

Mr. Kondreck, a local photographer, snapped this picture of our very efficient Monad Staff. They held meetings every Wednesday after school in Room 113.

Mr. Schultz advised this group of Monad Salesgirls who collected money for the yearbook during homeroom periods. They deserve praise for their work.

President Joe Prieto led the Junior Senate along with Vice-president Bill Perelli and Secretary-Treasurer Sandy Shaw. This group sponsored the Snow Shuffle Dance during one of the winter months and the biggest social event of the year, the Junior Prom. Both were successful, which shows the good work the senate did under the advisorship of Mr. Di Maggio and Miss Pinelli.

SOPHOMORE SENATE

FRESHMAN SENATE

Pat McCabe led the Freshman Senate as president in a successful start in this group's Belleville High School career by planning the Christmas Dance, a gala occasion just before the holidays. It was enjoyed by all the classes as well as the freshmen. The other officers are Vice-president Dolores Wilson, Secretary Marie Volk, and Treasurer Gerry Ippolito. Along with the aid of their advisor, Mr. George Lees, the Freshman Senate has had a very successful year.

SENIOR SENATE OFFICERS

These three student officers have worked hard this year directing the plans instigated by the Senior Senate. They are Tanya Greulich, president; Ed Kosinski, secretary-treasurer; and Tom Dolan, vice-president.

SENIOR ADVISORS

The teachers gathered here are the principal advisors for the senior activities. They are W. Ralph Correll, Murray Wilcox, Henry Miller, Michael Rosamilia, Alma Gray, Elsie Sandford, and Harold Dufford. Raymond Smith, Anne Snedeker, and Albert Kupferer were absent.

SENIOR SENATE

This is the group of students who have been seen working busily around B.H.S. Throughout the year the Senate has planned and run all the senior dances, a Christmas card sales program, the Senior Play, the Rye Beach Trip, the Senior Dinner Dance, graduation and many activities sponsored by the Class of 1955.

STUDENT COUNCIL . . .

One of our improvements on Alice's Wonderland is our Student Council. As a ruling body it is far better than the disagreeable queen who shouted "Off with their heads!" at every opportunity. Self-supporting through the magazine campaigns, the Council uses the money to subsidize the Spotlight, pay for our public address system, cheerleader outfits, and other good causes. The annual elections are taken seriously by the whole school which is careful to elect worthy officers. Led by its able faculty advisors, Belleville High is truly benefited by the achievements of the council.

SPOTLIGHT

It's my own invention . . .

If Alice had been able to have an informative publication like the Spotlight to read, perhaps she would not have been so bewildered at the strange happenings in Wonderland.

The Mad Hatter, who lived through an eternal tea-party could have written the "Heard in the Halls," the gardeners could have given advice on how to paint roses red, and the Queen of Hearts could have edited the sports page with tips on how to play croquet.

But Alice did not have a paper, and we have Nick La Para, Connie Franconero, and Norman Fost to supervise the excellent issues of Spotlight. Mr. Grossman is the faculty advisor, and Mr. Correll is the man we hear urging us to subscribe one hundred percent on publication day.

Connie Franconero and Nick La Para, editors, are giving assignments to this year's capable staff in Room 110.

DANCE BAND

During club periods this year, you could hear the Dance Band rehearsing the latest hit tunes. Under the guidance of Mr. Herbert Mattick, the friend of all B.H.S.'s Wonderland, the boys played for some of the B-Hives and assemblies.

If that doesn't drum them out of town,

Best of luck to a cute guy Ann

We wonder what the Twirling and Band director, Mr. Herbert Mattick, is saying to Mr. Correll to give him that angelic expression. Mr. Mattick can charm the faculty with that enthusiastic vitality of his, but he can also make the student body love him with his boyish smile. We will never forget the student-planned, surprise assembly honoring our own Mr. Mattick.

TWIRLERS and MAJORETTES

Our poised and good-looking Twirlers give us a smile at our stadium before one of our home football games. This group of talented girls have performed excellently throughout the year. The squad leaders are Kay Carroll, Carol Travers, Carol Yocum and Lois Zadikoff.

BAND

This is our B.H.S. Band—a hard-working group which has done a good job throughout the year. Here we find them in front of the stands before a home football game.

If Alice ever chanced to be near Room 202 during first period, she would have heard the Choir, under the leadership of Dr. Samuel W. Peck, singing a variety of songs. The group sang at the Christmas, Easter, and Spring concerts.

Grouped here are Kathleen Botsford and Dr. Samuel Peck. Kathleen is the accompanist for all choral groups and plays the organ during assemblies. Dr. Peck is the director of the music department.

BAKER'S DOZEN

If you enter Belleville High's Wonderland at 8:15 and hear music, it is not the Borogones from the Wonderland Band but our own Baker's Dozen. These thirteen girls with their director, Dr. Peck, and accompanist, Kathie Botsford, travel to the grammar schools and the choral festival at Trenton State Teachers College to sing each year. Mr. Kondreck photographed them one morning before rehearsal.

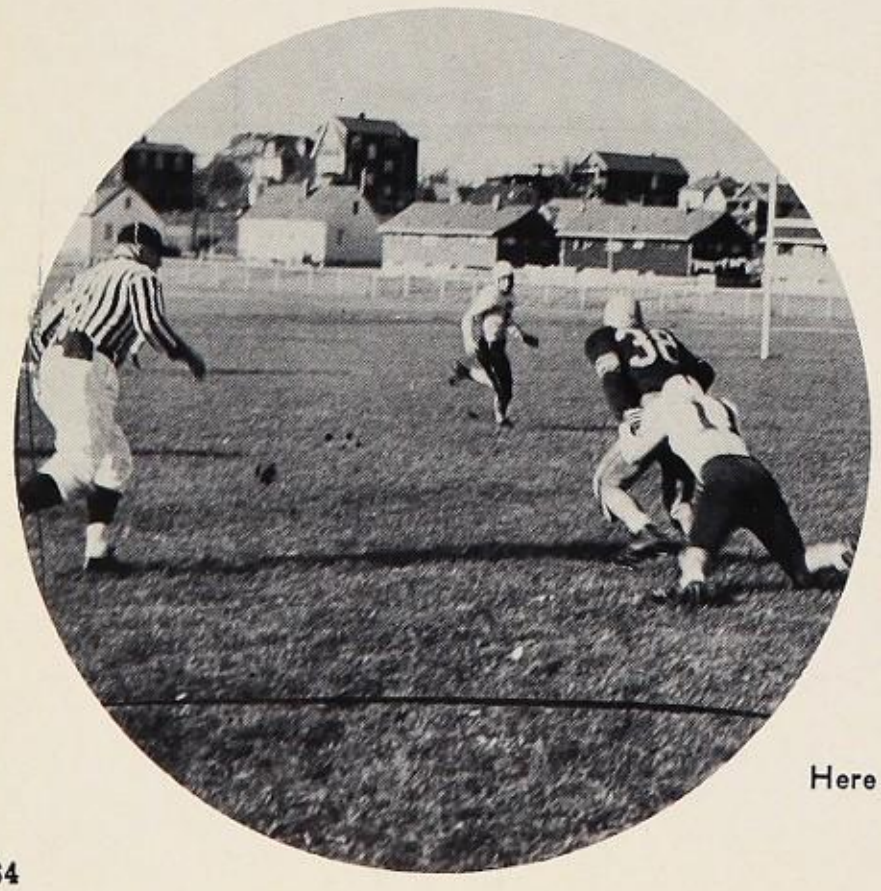
VARSITY

The Varsity Team of 1954-55 in a formal pose. They went through the season in spite of mud and rain to bring us a score of three wins, five losses, and one tie.

Here are the coaches in the locker room going over a few statistics to make a better team of Belleville's players.

Our dynamic Bellboys went through the season with enthusiasm and spirit with a record of 3 wins, 5 losses and 1 tie. Although East Orange beat us in the opener 18-0, Belleville showed teamwork and good possibilities. Bloomfield handed us our second loss with also an 18-0 score. A powerful Nutley eleven bumped Belleville off with an expected 26-0 loss. Prospects started looking better when we tied West Side 12-12 and displayed great teamwork hitting Irvington and Hillside hard for two consecutive wins. Kearny and West Orange handed us our next two unexpected losses. The Bellboys came onto the field Thanksgiving Day and



Here one of our boys is making a single-handed tackle of the opposition near the goal.

Here is the Freshman Team coached by Wilho Winika. These boys worked hard this year and have plenty of size and potential possibilities to give Belleville the top-notch varsity we want in 1959.

Pictured above are the managers and equipment director. They keep things running smoothly. They are Bob Fredericks, Billy Ellis, Jerry Rhodes, and Richie Mahmarian.

put the damper on Orange 19-6, which was enhanced by a tremendous 85-yard run by quarterback Frank Puleo.

Next year's team will miss such players as Dolan, Olphin, McCabe, Mignon, Dal Bon, Lilore, Bergamini, Benedetti, and Macaluso. Richard Macaluso was named by the Newark News and the Newark Star Ledger as a member of the all-county team.

We would like to thank "Jitty" Wische, Ray Smith, Ed Berlinski, and Wilho Winika for all the hard work they did as coaches. Much credit should be given to the avid fans who, despite the losses, followed the team from game to game.

BASKETBALL . . .

Coach Herman "Jitty" Wische is shown working with Vincent Dente, the varsity manager of Belleville's Basketball Team.

Belleville High's 1954-1955 basketball team was one of outstanding ability. Three seniors and eight juniors formed the Varsity. Headed by Captain Richie Veith, the high scorer, the team leaves behind them a proud record of eight wins and seven losses. Our Richie also has the honor of making the all-Essex first team.

Belleville entered the Annual Essex County Tournament unseeded for the first time in the tournament's nine-year history; but Belleville upset Irvington Tech by one point in an exciting game in which Frank Csaszar, in the remaining seconds of the game with the score tied 55-55, scored a foul shot to win the game.

In the quarter-finals the "Cinderella" Bellboys trounced favored Seton Hall 72-60. The team was picked by many coaches to win the tournament after this second upset.

The Blue and Gold faced West Side in the semi-finals; and after three overtime periods, a tap-in goal by West Side gave the Rough Riders a 55-54 victory. Richie Veith piloted the squad back from a seven-point deficit in the fourth quarter to tie the score at the end of regulation time. "Tricky" Veith tied the score with a drive-in basket with only nine seconds left to play. In the overtime, neither team scored in the first two overtimes, but Veith hit for a foul shot to start the third and final sudden death period. West Side then followed with the game-winning goal.

Although the Bellboys did not finish first in the famed tournament, the team was one which will long be remembered.

CREW — Thrown out to sea

Coaches Bill Bennett and Ray Smith viewing the boys from the dock of the boat house on the Passaic River.

The 1955 Crew, although lighter than the crews of the past few years, has the power to win. The varsity eight with coaches and manager travels all along the Eastern seacoast from Massachusetts to Philadelphia as well as remaining on the Passaic for races.

Having as its home dock the Nereid Boat Club, the Crew practices daily on the Passaic River. The club is the place where the Belleville and Nutley crews keep the shells and equipment.

This year Bob Bartlett is managing the boys and Bill Bennett and Ray Smith are coaching our team of Howie Irving, bow; Harry Glass, 2; Jack Connolly, 3; Harry Reynolds, 4; Bob Lane, 5; Tom Dolan, 6; Howie Taubin, 7; Bob Greene, stroke; and Gene Hopper, coxswain.

The Crew has raced against college freshmen and other high schools. Among them were M.I.T., Kent, Rutgers and Columbia, as well as La Salle, Nutley, Arlington, Roosevelt, and Poughkeepsie high schools. The high-light of the season was the National Schoolboy Championship race on the Schuylkill River in Philadelphia.

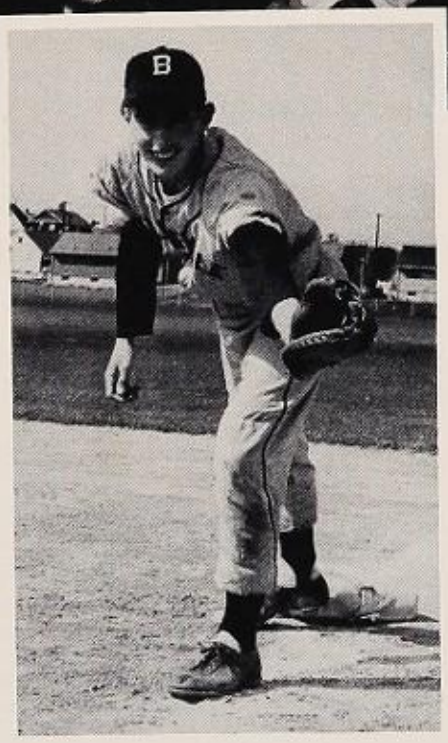
BASEBALL

The 1955 Varsity Baseball Team posed by Kondreck Studio. Pitcher John Bartell, second from right in the first row, made baseball history by pitching a no-hitter against Columbia.

The Belleville High Baseball Team of 1955 put in many hours of practice at the stadium in preparation for those grueling games with neighboring schools. The season began auspiciously when we won the opening game against Columbia on April 20.

Led by Captain Joe Orlando, the team consisted of first base, Richard Veith; second base, Ted Nichols; third base, Joe Prieto; shortstop, Joe Long; left field, "Happy" Menarguez; center field, Joe Orlando; right field, Jim Apple; catcher, James Landon; and pitchers, Joe Tortorella and John Bartell.

The boys played enthusiastically and left a good record for their season, thanks to the coaching of Mr. Berlinski during the 18 games.



Richie Veith, our All-State basketball star, also does a fine job on the baseball team.

What a swing! Joe Orlando belts out a long hit.

Mr. Kondreck took this formal picture of the Junior Varsity Baseball Team. Coach MacArthur uses a line-up of seven sophomores and two freshmen. Many of these boys are eventually on the Varsity Team, having gained valuable experience against rugged opposing teams.

Belleville High will miss the experience of these players next year. The seniors on the team are Ted Nichols, Joe Orlando, Don Grucock, Richie Veith, and Roger Guglicelli.

TRACK

The Belleville High Track Team does more than "trot." Among the usual events that take place during a meet are the broad jump, high jump, shot put, discus throw and relay events as well as the runs and dashes. The 1955 team represented by all four classes had 35 boys, 7 of whom were seniors. One senior, Joe Mignon, has really put Belleville on the track map with his point-winning dashes for the past four years.

During the season they met nine times with teams from surrounding schools. Having begun their season right after Easter vacation under Mr. Winika's coaching, they were in meets all through May and climaxed the year with the State Championship Meet in New Brunswick during June.

We brought them out so far and made them trot so quick.

GOLF

These few boys under the direction of Mr. Wische practice at Hendricks Field Golf Course in preparation for the matches with other schools in New Jersey. This season, nine matches were scheduled with such schools as Bloomfield, Nutley, Montclair, Saint Benedict's, and Blair Academy as well as the State Tournament.

Although golf is a minor sport with a scant following, these boys are enthusiastic and carry the responsibility of representing Belleville High throughout the state.

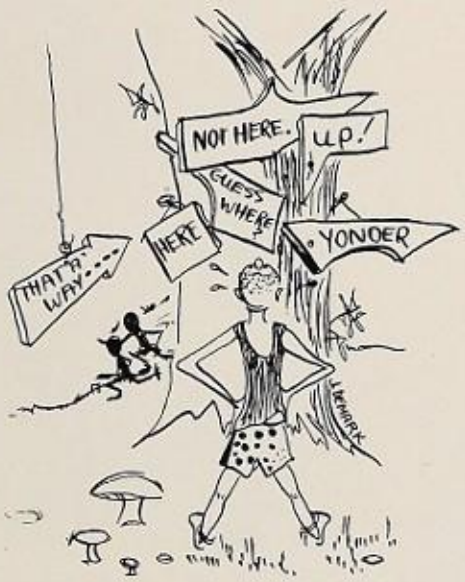
BOWLING

Belleville High School's Bowling Team is coached by Mr. George Lees. This hard-working group meets every Friday afternoon at the Branch Brook Lanes Bowling Alleys. The team has participated in the North Jersey Interscholastic Bowling League. After playing ten matches, Belleville had six wins and four defeats, which placed them second behind Bloomfield during the regular campaign.

In the League's handicap tournament Belleville walked off with first-place honors.

The members of the team and their averages are Ron Bergamini, 174; Mike Higgins, 167; Carmen Fortunato, 158; Art Brizzi, 155; Mike Benecchi, 153; and John Coppola, 134.

We wish to thank Mr. Kondreck of Belleville for the above picture.



Arthur Brizzi, John Coppola, and Ron Bergamini look on as Mike Higgins presents Mr. Lees with a gift in appreciation for his help as coach during the successful season of the team.

Arthur Brizzi and John Coppola watch as Ron Bergamini is presented with a statue by Mr. Kittle which represents the team having taken second place in the league.

CHEERLEADERS

What a noise they make

when they tumble

The individual pictures are those of the seniors who are graduating. Above is Captain Tanya Greulich.

Dolores Panzer is caught in a formal pose.

Here is that pleasant cheerleader, Leona Salandra.

The cheerleaders' many hours of practice were supervised by Betty Forgerson and Ida Thomson pictured here with Captain Tanya Greulich.

Gail Fobert is caught just before the game at our stadium.

Here are the members of the 1954-1955 cheering squad. They are Pat Paganelli; Leona Salandra; Tanya Greulich, captain; Dolores Panzer; Sarah Daniels; Gail Fobert; Barbara Wische; and Sally Kelly.

How often Alice must have wished for someone to cheer her on in the dark moments of loneliness in Wonderland! Our lucky Bellboys had these lovely young ladies to lead the cheers that helped to give us winning points in football and basketball. Noted for their capability, good looks, and personality, these girls cheered themselves hoarse to keep up the morale of the team.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Here we go round the mulberry bush

LEADERS' CLUB

These are the girls of the white gym suits—members of the Leaders' Club, which is supervised by Miss Thomson and Miss Forgerson. The officers are Arlene Whychell, president; Tanya Greulich, vice-president; Kay Carroll, secretary; and Peggy Burke, treasurer. These girls are chosen for their outstanding achievements in athletics and their efforts in all sports and school work.
